POEM

“June”

What do we mean by “form”?

“A poem comes right with a click like

—W. B. Yeats

POEM

“Survival Essentials”

FORM

form

“A poem is alive, it uses you to get itself written, spoken, to get its wisdom to cross from the unknown to the known
... and its primary current, to do all this, is formal.”

—Jorie Graham

“The rules and adherence are not the achievement of a poem. It’s how the poem works that matters.”

—Kwame Dawes

“Always position the writing within experience—tough and unsentimental.”

—Kwame Dawes

POEMS

“Origin Story”

“The New Beauty”

“It is our task to imprint this temporary perishable earth in ourselves so deeply... its essence can rise again. We are the bees of the invisible. We wildly collect honey of the visible to store it in the great golden hive of the invisible.”

—Rainer Maria Rilke

“Get your camera in closer...be selective.
Remember detail and description, those are the tools that will evoke emotion in the reader.”

—Ellen Bass

you from its deep, unhinged place.”
